UNDERC

The road goes on and on down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the road has gone, and I must follow, if I can, pursuing with eager feet, until it joins paths and errands meets.
And whither then? I cannot say.
- Tolkien

FRESHMEN

For Long you live and high you fly
And smiles you give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will ever be

- Pink Floyd

Seniors

I believe in these people
I believe in this age
Though I hear about torment and life's lonely page...
and still we walk strong
we remember we're free for the truth we are given for what we believe.

"Organization is the key to success?"

Because Brookline High has a strong academic base, we are able to expand our educational opportunities beyond the classroom and into the world. Those who take advantage of this challenge, leave BHS as a stronger school and themselves as stronger citizens. I'm proud to be a part of this process.

Many things contributed to our success this season. Mr. Coombs lead us to our first entry into the State Tournament in 10 years. These are some of the highlights of our season;

Our big game dinners, and Leah's desire for lemon cake while we cheered in the dining rooms. On route to Newton North, Sarah throwing the tiger out the window while Julie made everyone wear the blue "fuzzy jackets." Although our goalie, Pauline, took many sick days, or was it injuries . . . She was always willing to start the team brawl. Michelle the "Rich —" laughing hysterically at Nicole's delay of game in North Quincy. Stephanie and Ilana's famous quotes; "I don't care" and "Sorry, that wasn't my fault." Although Leah and Jess shared positions, they didn't share voices ("Push it up!!"). Whereas Ashley was shy, Maggie enjoyed performing her California poses in front of Cablevision. With Janet's frustrated "Aaah's" came Erin's encouraging cheers. Meg's trip to the space shuttle left Shannon in high gear. Thanks everybody for making this a great season.

Love,

Tina, Nancy and Diana

All must agree that this year's boys soccer team had a good year. Not only did we make the state tournament, but soccer groupies were there by our side every step of the way. And who could forget the Coach Strassner experience? We all appreciated his sincerity, intensity, and most of all his words of supreme confidence. With "the best goalie in the state" and our unsung "fly-swat" defense, why did we even lose a game? Well, with a few painful memories of losses we still must admit that overall we achieved a great deal. If fate had treated us with any sense of decency, we would have won our first game in the State Tournament, and maybe even have gotten another chance to ride the Crystal Bus.

Dante? Has anyone seen Dante? The 4-9 posse, or was that the 6-11 posse? Congratulations to the players who got a ride from Kambiz, and lived. Find out where Matt will be, and Zeke is sure to follow. Best Dresser Award: D — nice. Best imitation of roughing the kicker with out a defense: Sean Clancy. Andre, the leader of the X-men! "Well I could say Leo." — Noah Davis. Jeeezhauss!!! What was that red thing Miceal wore under his girdle? Thanks to L — strong for all the nice balls. So, now we're in a what? Was Ritter's hair real, or did he keep a pet in his helmet? "62 — wreck." TK is O.K. Special thanks to Mr. Mckweon and the other coaches. Thanks to J.C. from J.H. And a very, very special thanks to Michael Mazmanian and Steve Nelson; the former for getting a dope haircut, and the latter for just getting one (although it didn't look too good.) "Winning isn't what counts, its giving 110% to win, that counts." — Vince Lombardi with help from Robert Lynch. NO MATTER WHAT, BROOKLINE FOOTBALL WILL ALWAYS LIVE ON!!!

It was a long and memorable season with you guys. This was the best year we've had and we want you to know that you did a super job. You deserve a lot of credit for the games and the pep-rally and we think that your effort really paid off. We know it has hard cheering for the football team especially when they needed more than cheers and spirit to win their games but it was their appreciation that helped us make it to the end of the season.

We'd like to say thanks to the football players, coaches and parents especially Mr. Cawthorne, the Kaplans and the Chamberlains for their support during the season. We'd also like to thank Ms. Murachver for being an advisor and a friend.

To those who will be returning next year, good luck cheering in 1989 and to the others, good luck after graduation.

Thanks for the fun times,
Meredith Melzer and Gretchen Moore

BOY'S GOLF

The golf team was a little inconsistent, but in the end we pulled together to defeat Brockton and claim a tie for second place on the tough Suburban League. Due to outstanding contributions from all team members, we qualified for the State Tournament in the spring. Coach Ron Divincenzo, as always, helped us out a great deal.

The fall season was highlighted by strong performances from freshman David Heavy (an undefeated record), juniors Gerard Walsh and Stephen Burke, sophomores Mike Kelly and Chris Wagner, and finally seniors Ben Wizansky, Adam Conviser, Peter Karp, Phil Dunlap and Sam Schneider. Heavy claimed third place in the year-end Sullivan Tournament, while Wizansky and Kelly tied for fifth.

From the captains, Ben Wizansky, Gerard Walsh and Stephen Burke

As we all know, the season had its ups and downs. We ran, blocked, spiked, and sprawled our way through two and one-half months of play. Although our record (12-7) was not as good as we had hoped it would be, we still had a lot of fun. Hope to see you all next year for another exciting season. Good Luck!!! And now a word from the wise:

Elisa: Share that food you have hidden behind your back!

Nancy: Spiking up a storm.

Mel A.: Do you think you could wear your shorts a little lower?

Khuong (Khuonger): Yut, ngee, som, say uuuuummmmmmmmm!!!

Mel R.: Liang Nôi, Bot poe: same difference.

Jenny: NIICE bunhugs; thanks for switching to a better sport.

May: Was that you who yelled?

Martha: Miss Improvement: keep it up!!

Cheyenne: Our backcourt weapon.

Lou: After you finish helping us take down the net, can we have a ride home?

GIRL'S CROSS COUNTRY

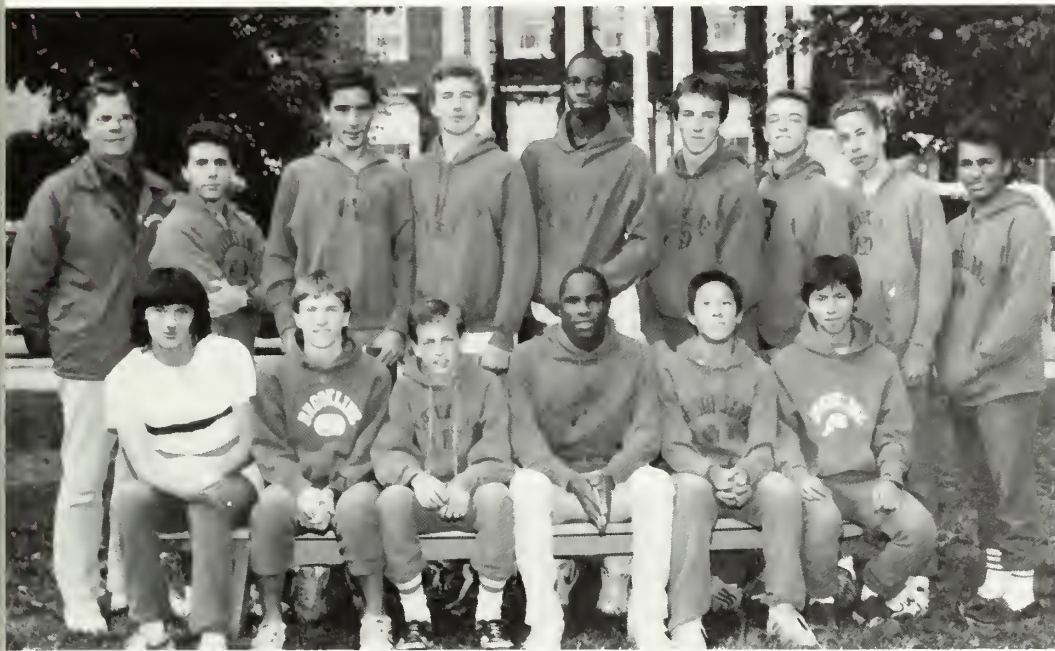

First Row: Nancy Lange, Co-captain Meg Brooks, Co-captain Amanda Frost, Laura Smoyer Second Row: Coach Allyson Toney, Caitlin Riley, Liz Costin, Karen Sternfeld.

After such high hopes for a great '88 season, we were all depressed after the first few weeks. Our team seemed cursed — we were singlehandedly supporting the medical profession, and were 0-3 after our first three meets. But the always hyper Liz and Nancy, and the huge crowds (ha, ha) inspired us on to our next three victories; a first for girl's cross country. Next year is sure to be a winning season. Caitlin, Liz, Nancy and Karen remember — JUST DO IT!!

Good Luck,
Meg and Amanda

BOY'S CROSS COUNTRY

First Row: John Nguyen, Travis Keane, Dave Steinbergh, Captain Anthony Rolle, Felix Chen, Kim Thea Second Row: Coach Laakso, Stewart Katz, Palacks, Sam Riley, Marc Carroll, Casey Charles, Peter Steele, Ben Young, Leonardo Torres. Missing: Matt Cooney

The boy's cross country team had an undefeated season this year (on the road). Everyone was determined to work hard which made it a fun season for all. Seniors: Anthony "Smooth" Rolle set the Brookline record at Larz Anderson with an impressive 13:01 time in a 2.5 mile course. Four year veteran Peter Steele ran like the man of Steele that he is. Stew Katz had the dangerous shuttle ride to Larz Anderson. John "Paint-Face" Nguyen had the longest hair, that just refused to be cut. Powered by his shades, Marc "The ReMARCable" Carroll ran well in his first season. And Ben Young gave an honest effort in his first year, while consistently driving his Honda Civic to Larz Anderson. Juniors: Sam Riley came in first place in the Division 1 State meet, while Paul Sacks and Casey Charles helped produce the juice for the team. Sophomores: Travis Keene and Matt Cooney aided Sam in the Division 1 meet. Freshmen: Felix Chen, Kim Thea and Dave Steinberg have great potential to be the runners of the future!

Finally to Coach Laakso a fond adeiu!!!!

From,
The SENIORS

Our 1988 season wasn't what we hoped it to be, and our record didn't reflect our new found attitudes.

We will never forget the abuse we took about our record (Thanks M.V.), so we came up with a creative way to tell everyone — Ohhhhh, 15-1

With our "very compatible" captains we almost led BHS to upset the league (right!) We want to thank everyone for all their effort and their good attitudes, especially Missy! Remember Joyce's "duke" cleat, Melissa's bandana, and Kareem's glasses. The best thing was Karen wasn't a Spaz. We want to thank JV for extremely quiet bus rides home. GOOD LUCK next year!!!

We're sure you'll be great.

We love you Ellen, you're the best!!!

Without a diving board, we began our season wondering how much we'd be affected by our having to forfeit thirteen points at every home meet. We knew it would be a tough year.

So what was the secret to our success? Each and every one of us understood that the only way to accomplish our goals was to respect each other and unify our strengths as a team.

But was it really worth it? All the split ends? All the Saturday morning cartoons we sacrificed? You BETCHA! What could be better than winning every dual meet to beat every team in the Suburban League? DOING IT TWICE!

On November 4th, 1988, for the first time in over fifteen years, the Brookline girls captured the Suburban League Title.

Even before the swimmers walked onto the pool deck, the divers had earned us a substantial lead the day before in the diving championship. Although their hard work seemed to go unnoticed because of their having to practice at other pools, their perseverance paid off and they started us off in the winning direction.

The intensity of Suburbans was felt by everyone. Right from the start when we "christened" the pool with our green water, to our cries of victory (and Newton's tears of defeat!) as we all joined hands to hear the results of the meet.

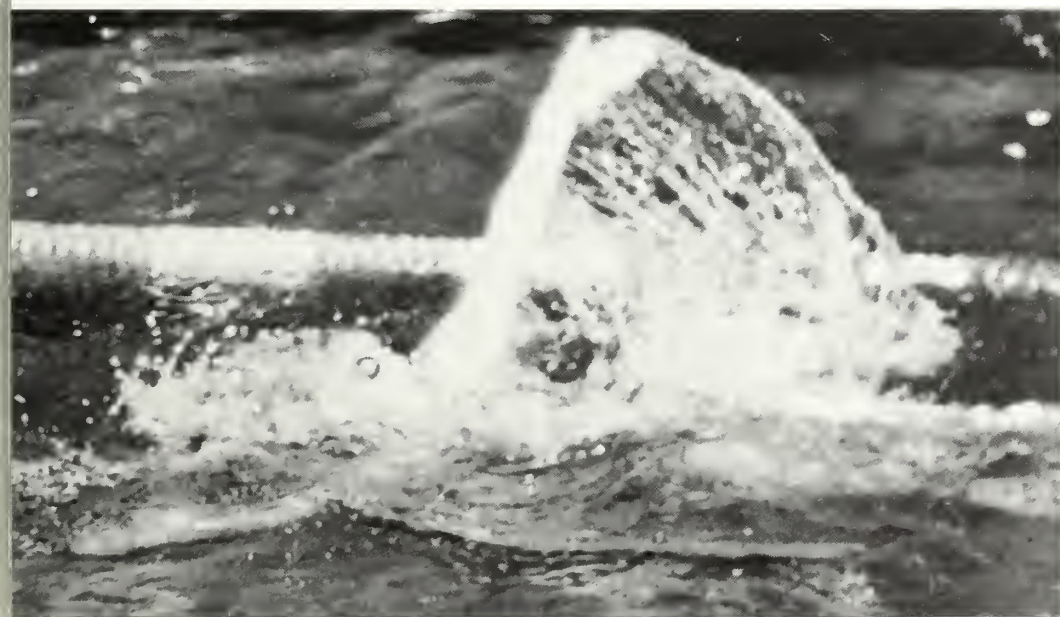

BROOKLINE, WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS!!! Bill and Jim, how could we ever have done it without you? Thanks for being so special. We love you all! We'll miss you! We'll be back to see you do it again next year.

We wish to thank the coaching staff of the Brookline High School basketball program for molding our raw, untalented, young bodies into supreme, finely-tuned instruments of the game. Because of their tutelage throughout our years on the squad, we have gone through the tunnels of boyhood onto the ramps of manhood. They have guided us on the roads of our future and we, the portion of the Brookline High School basketball team that will be graduating in June, wish to express our deepest gratitude. During our every game, home and especially away, we take for granted a facet of support that motivates us to win every game, and every game we lose, we lose with the condolences of these girls. The members of the Brookline High School basketball team wish to express our deepest feelings of gratitude towards those members of the Basketball Cheerleading Squad.

And now some names to remember:
Kwame — 42?

Geoff — "Gee whiz, Chris Noble's really great!"

Jason Smith (J-Nise) — 3 more pounds, babel

Miceal — If I get in, I'm launching a "3".

Jason Moran — Come to practice much?

Corey — It's the bean game!

Danny — Goin' for yours.

Langston — Georgetown ... Clap to this!

Victor — Don't believe the hype (scolo)

Malik — You're playing like a freshman!

Hans — Huh? I didn't touch you!

Eric — Never — Nervous Haven

Kojo — BBBBllllpppp ...

Due to bad luck, and bad timing, this season wasn't as great as we thought it would be after we crushed 3rd ranked Revere on their home court. Nevertheless, we pulled together near the end to beat rivals Brockton in overtime by one point. Although skill-wise we were inconsistent, we always had a good time. Here are a few memories:

Jenny: Grrrrruff!!!

Melanie R: 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 . . . Happy New Year!!

Diana: Tempor tantrum in Peabody

Melanee A: Diana, Dirty, Laundry . . . I have to do my! (dumb!)

BOYS' TRACK

First Row: Tri-Captains Peter Steele, Anthony Rolle, Stew Katz. Second Row: David Steinbergh, Jonah Givelber, Michael Cheung, Walter Rodriguez, Feliz Chen, Yu Tang Chen, Daniel Max. Third Row: Coach Rick Katz, Howard Miller, Eli Weissman, Ariel Silbert, Mike Tow, Simon Marxer, Claudel Francover, Jesse Redlener, Scott Williamson, Coach Dave Counts.

Led by our fearless captains Stew Katz, Peter Steele, and Anthony Rolle; the Boy's Indoor Track Team had an exciting season:

Anthony 'Sweet' Rolle got silly in the mile.

Peter 'the man of' Steele proved to be so.

Stew Katz exemplified leadership during the daily warm-ups.

Jonah 'Givey' Givelber was a 'mosel' runner.

Simon, Claudel, Jonah — Midnight Whispers.

The Wizard of Osgood performed well in meets.

Ariel 'Silby' Silbert and his pre-race precautions.

Ben Young's running was solid, not as solid as a fire hydrant.

Michael 'Wang' Cheung was a surprise senior.

Eli 'Eti' Weissman and his 'important' arguments with Anthony.

Howie, Mike, Scott — mid-distance trio.

James 'Air' Kirtley rose to new heights.

Jesse Redlener wooed us by winning the 300 versus Newton.

Felix, Yu Tang, Walter — The three stooges.

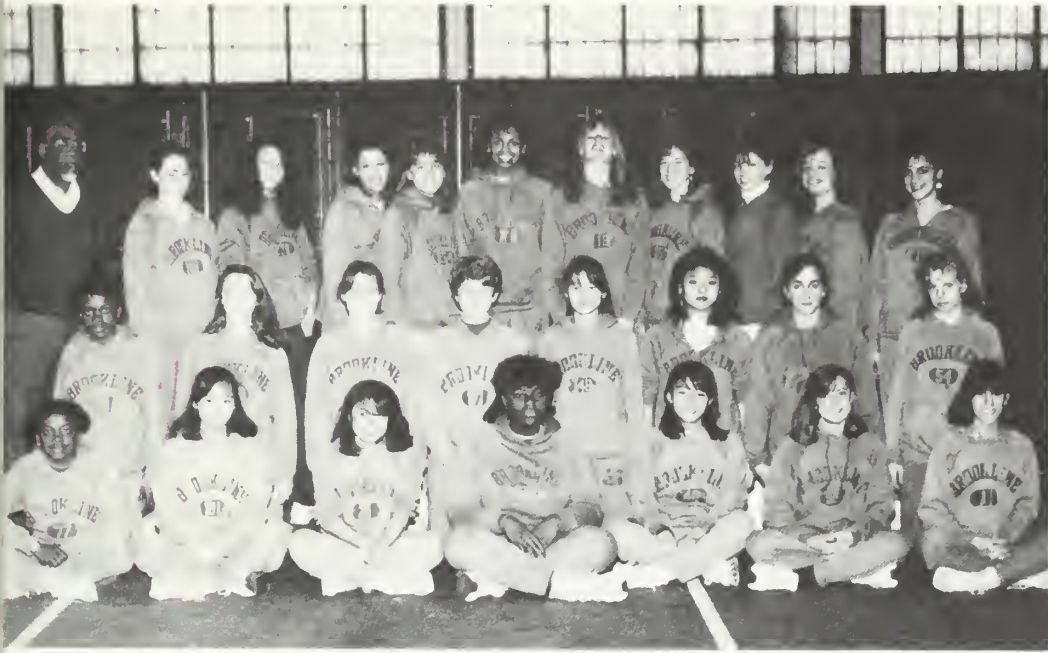

Dave S. with his perfect hair, almost as perfect as his mile time.

And we'll never forget: Claudel's 'Apple Cider', Dave's hair, Rick's discriminating taste, leg lifts, half-ways, lollipop trivia, Ben's Presidential pardon, Wolfie, and 492.

And our sincere thanks to coaches: Dave Countz and Rick Katz.

GIRLS' TRACK

First Row: Astride Francoeur, Enid Chung, Christine Law, Captain Korin Riley, Leslie Fong, Cairn Verhulst, Valerie White, Second Row: Ingrid Francoeur, Haidee Janak, Stephanie Morse, Karen Sternfeld, Mari Madsen, Lisa Herman, Caitlin Riley, Ana Piere. Third Row: Coach Parsons, Michelle Connolly, Alicia Reitman, Kim Phillips, Kelly Poles, Cheryl Callahan, Laura Smoyer, Amanda Frost, Tina Hennessey, Lila Place, Leah Davis. Missing: India Viola, Kareema Cavallo, Asst. Coach Gail Riley

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times. We killed Quincy (who doesn't?) but were trampled by Newton North (who isn't?). We triumphed over Waltham due to our awesome mile relay made up of Caitlin "Flo-Jo" Riley, Astride "Mad Dog" Francoeur, Amanda "go-sick-at-practice" Frost, and Tina "Come from behind" Hennessey. Our two all-stars, Korin and Karen, once again blew away the competition. Thanks to our chubby coaches (just kidding) and our endless 400's, we finished with a pretty good record (3-3) and had a great time too.

This was a season of firsts — Mr. Parsons forced a smile, Korin managed to say "butt-stretch", and we could finally tell the twins, Astride and Ingrid, apart. The seniors will be missed, but with all the talented freshmen (who made up half our team) we're sure to be even stronger next year. Remember, it's not us tracksters that are crazy, it's the rest of the world!

SKI TEAM

First Row: Mike Ulich, Julie Grand, Aaron Passell, Kate Linebaugh, Erich Horsley, Chris Klinefelter. Second Row: Kirsten Ulich, Erin Nader, Rachel Zindler, Meg Hourihan, Sandra Tam, Sharon Smith, Julia Vogelsang, Becky Hurlburt. Third Row: David Colburn, Rachel Brown, Caroline Campbell, Abby Kaplan, Leah Feinberg, Jessica Rowland, Becca Lynch, Josh Weiner, Edmund Chen, Derek Perkins, Daryl Gies. Fourth Row: William Uppington, Nathan Brown, Caroline Foote, Jose Garcia, David Lange, Roger Jerabek, Noah Rumpf, Rami Salman, Jim Partan, Resul Gunasti. Fifth Row: Mr. Butchart, David Zuckerman, Christian Requena, Alex Taresenko.

We had a great year,
He called us all dear.

As a team we suffered many hardships: climatic, orthodontic and generally hardonic. But we stuck it out skiing in shorts, weather permitting. It wasn't anyone's usual picture of skiing, the green grass, budding trees and the lone ivory loop. In many ways we didn't wear spandex (except for Passell and Siber), and we were a little slow in getting to the starting line. The strength in downhill rested on foreign shoulders. Occasionally we fell more than we finished often stopping for nature appreciation, coincidentally in front of the finish line. But maybe it was Waltham, that world wide skiing mecca, that inspired us to strive for greatness.

We prepared ourselves at the faculty Caffé.
(It was all serious, no laugh!)

at the wind blown heights of Mt. Prospect, at the loveliness of Nevsky Prospekt,
and on the dunes of the lake Weston Greens
and with the inspirations from Mister Means.

So,
eventhough,
there was no snow
we know that we go,
and we don't go Slow!

HOCKEY CHEERLEADING

Julie Marco — Patience and permant B.M.S.

Heidi Hanlon — A Deeper voice "And let Knooooox Shoot It!!"

Kristina Langdon — Velcro to make her hands stick to her hips!

Michelle Hallisey — Heidi's voice

Tiffany Woolf — "A Clue"

Shannon Conry — A sign that says "ones up, get in line, and hands on hip!"

Lori Cullen — Rhythm

Helen Kearns — A Permanent Smile

Rachel Jarvis — Some Cig's in the bathroom

Christine Kaye — A new pocketbook so she won't take Julie's

Julie Young — 365 pairs of Cheerleading sweats, one for each day of the year

(since she loves them)

Mrs. Corcoran — A new Mad Madilin Rap! ... and a muzzle

The captains leave the team ... watches and new excuses for being late!!

We did it! Thanx to all the hard work of EVERYONE involved. They'll remember us for a long time; we'll always remember you for these reasons:

April: "You guys ... "; the Hop

Marla: "I'm gonna get the jackets."

Nicole: "See that boy, at the line ... "

Kayla: Most Improved; ... "Michaela, you're here!"

Robin: — Kellye; your Kool-Aid smile!

Kellye: — Robin; "... Oh, yeah ... "

Simone: "Don't worry, be happy"

Melissa: our "trouble-maker"?!/? (ha,ha)

Sherry: (Troy)!; your "U-hu" adaptations to every cheer.

Jaya: "Let's do a cheer!"

Nadia: "... jam, Oh, jam ... "

Princess: "That's kinda cutish, but who am I to judge?"

Ayanna: our mountain climber; "bustop, boy's names, you start."

Nikki: "I'm not gonna say nothing, but ... "; the Hype.

Sarah: Flexibility

This was the year we got it all back. Remember the pyramids, the talk, and THE DANCE. Thanx Adina, Paul, Mr. Shluntz, and the V.B-ball squad. Peace!

April and Marla

Missing: Co-captain Gabe Christy, Liam McNiff, Brian Hyett, Roamn Faynerash, Rafi Teken, Michael Raynus, Itai Beiderman, Andre Cunha.

SUBURBAN LEAGUE MEET CHAMPS

This was definitely a season we'll never forget! Just as we got into shape and were psyched to swim, our pool was closed. We spent the next three weeks traveling to the YWCA at Copley every day for practice. As the days passed by, a championship season seemed way beyond reason. However, we stuck with it and soon we were back in our yellow pool, only now it was green. With only two meets to go, the loss to Brockton was a blow to our ego but it made our desire to win the Suburban League Meet even stronger. The tension that filled the air after the final race, as we waited for the official to announce the winner, was almost unbearable. The silence was broken by the announcement of Brockton's second place finish. We leaped off the bench, some of us crying and some of us cheering — our dream had become a reality.

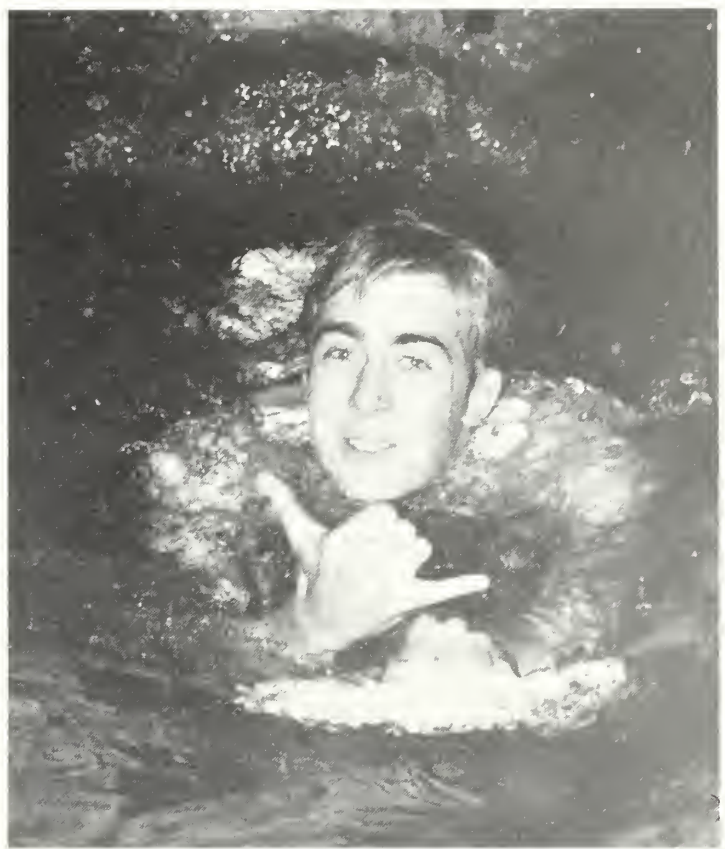

"Later, guys" — keep up the tradition . . .

BOYS' GYMNASTICS

First Row: Erik Stone, Tri-captain Thomas Yee, Tri-captain Kris Heinicke. Second Row: David Hickman, Nick Ioannou, Scott Ehrlich, John Ioannou, Shawn McMullen, Ed Tam, Pedro Fagundo, Coach Dwight Tom.
Missing: Tri-captain Adam Marks

We finally made it! After four years of hard work, the Brookline gymnastics team is at its finest. I remember starting gymnastics, seeing the talents in my teammates. Then I knew, my senior year would be the best year ever for this Brookline Team. I would like to give special thanks to Tom Yee, a great gymnast and a good friend, whom I worked with for four years in order to reach our goal. Finally I want to thank Dwight Tom for making our team what it is.

— Adam and Kris

"Gymnastics couldn't have been a better way to spend my time. I was a 'Know-nothing' freshman in the beginning; now I'm a proud senior: proud of myself and even more so, proud of our team: a team that can pull together for the win (L.S.)."

Good Job, Fellas!!

Town Meeting passed its own attendance proposal for more school-wide education on the issue of rape and a proposal to receive gym credit for playing sports. Town Meeting is augmented this year by the Constitutional Convention Steering Committee, a group of students and teachers who have been working outside of school time to improve upon Brookline High's school government. Many of TM's members are on the CCSC and it has allowed us all to better understand the many benefits as well as some of the difficulties present in a democratic school government.

Drama Society

Dear Mr. Ryrie,
We the undersigned hereby tender our resignation from the 1988-89 edition of the Brookline High School Drama Society. Though we enjoyed our participations in such productions as "The Brick and the Rose" and Dramathon #7, and look forward to the Emerson, Globe and Student Directed Drama Festivals, we are all overshadowed by your forceful personality and good looks and feel our presence unnecessary. Perhaps the latest edition to the Ryrie Clan, be it he or she, will grow up to carry out our neglected duties. Respectfully and with awe.

I say over again, why did
He take you away.
Now our hearts are all broken and everything's
gray.
It's hard to accept that we can't have a hug or a smile,
but I know we'll have you again, though it may take awhile.
You're still in our hearts and you'll always be our Kevin.
As for now, rest in peace in the skies of heaven.

— Dawn Churchill

It was all too quick
I don't know when we laughed last
We have so many cherished memories
From all the years that have passed

I remember hanging out
With you and the CREW
Sharing little stories
About what we used to do

All the funny moments
Like putting your head through the Lynch wall
I loved every moment so deeply
God, did we have a ball

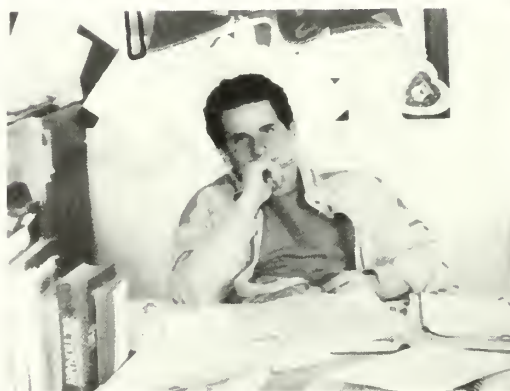

Or what about the warm summer night
When the night had started to become cool
We knew where to go and where to meet
So we ended up at the school

We were prepared for anything to happen
The squirt guns we bought were alike
And all that we seemed to be waiting for
Was to soak Damian and Mike

I can't begin to tell you enough
How happy you would have been
To see all the people and hear the stories
Exchanged by ALL of your FRIENDS

There's one thing we cannot forget
And it's the most important one of all
You'd want your friends to remember the dreams
And proceed in life walking tall

— Ann C. Smith

— KFG FATS

So, so you think you can tell,
Heaven from Hell,
Blue skies from pain
Can you tell a green field
From a cold steel rail,
A smile from a veil
Do you think you can tell.
Did they get you to trade
Your heroes for ghosts,
Hot ashes for trees,
Hot air for a cool breeze,
Cold comfort for change?
Did you exchange,
A walk on part of the war
For a lead role in a cage . . .
How I wish, How I wish you were here,
We're just two lost souls,
Swimming in a fish bowl,
Year after year,
Running over the same old ground,
And have we found,
The same old fears,
Wish you were here.

— Pink Floyd

“ . . . any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind . . . ”

Ed McHugh

The sudden loss of Ed McHugh was devastating to all who knew him. He was a kind and caring person. He knew his job as a security aide at B.H.S. was not going to be easy or gain him popularity, but even so, he took great pride in his work. As time passed he learned to take one day at a time and never gave up.

He was tested over and over and each time he came out learning a little more. Eventually, he began to gain the trust and respect of many of the students. They realized that Ed was not here to threaten them in any way but to help them if and when any problems arose.

His constant smile was a sign of just how much his job and each day meant to him. He took the good with the bad and with each day came a new experience.

Eddie once said how good it was to have had this job, and I think of how nice it was to have Ed as a partner.

His loss will be felt for a long time, but I will always remember the laughs, the stories, and even the quiet times I shared with Ed. I'm glad I had the chance to have known him.

— Marianne McCarthy

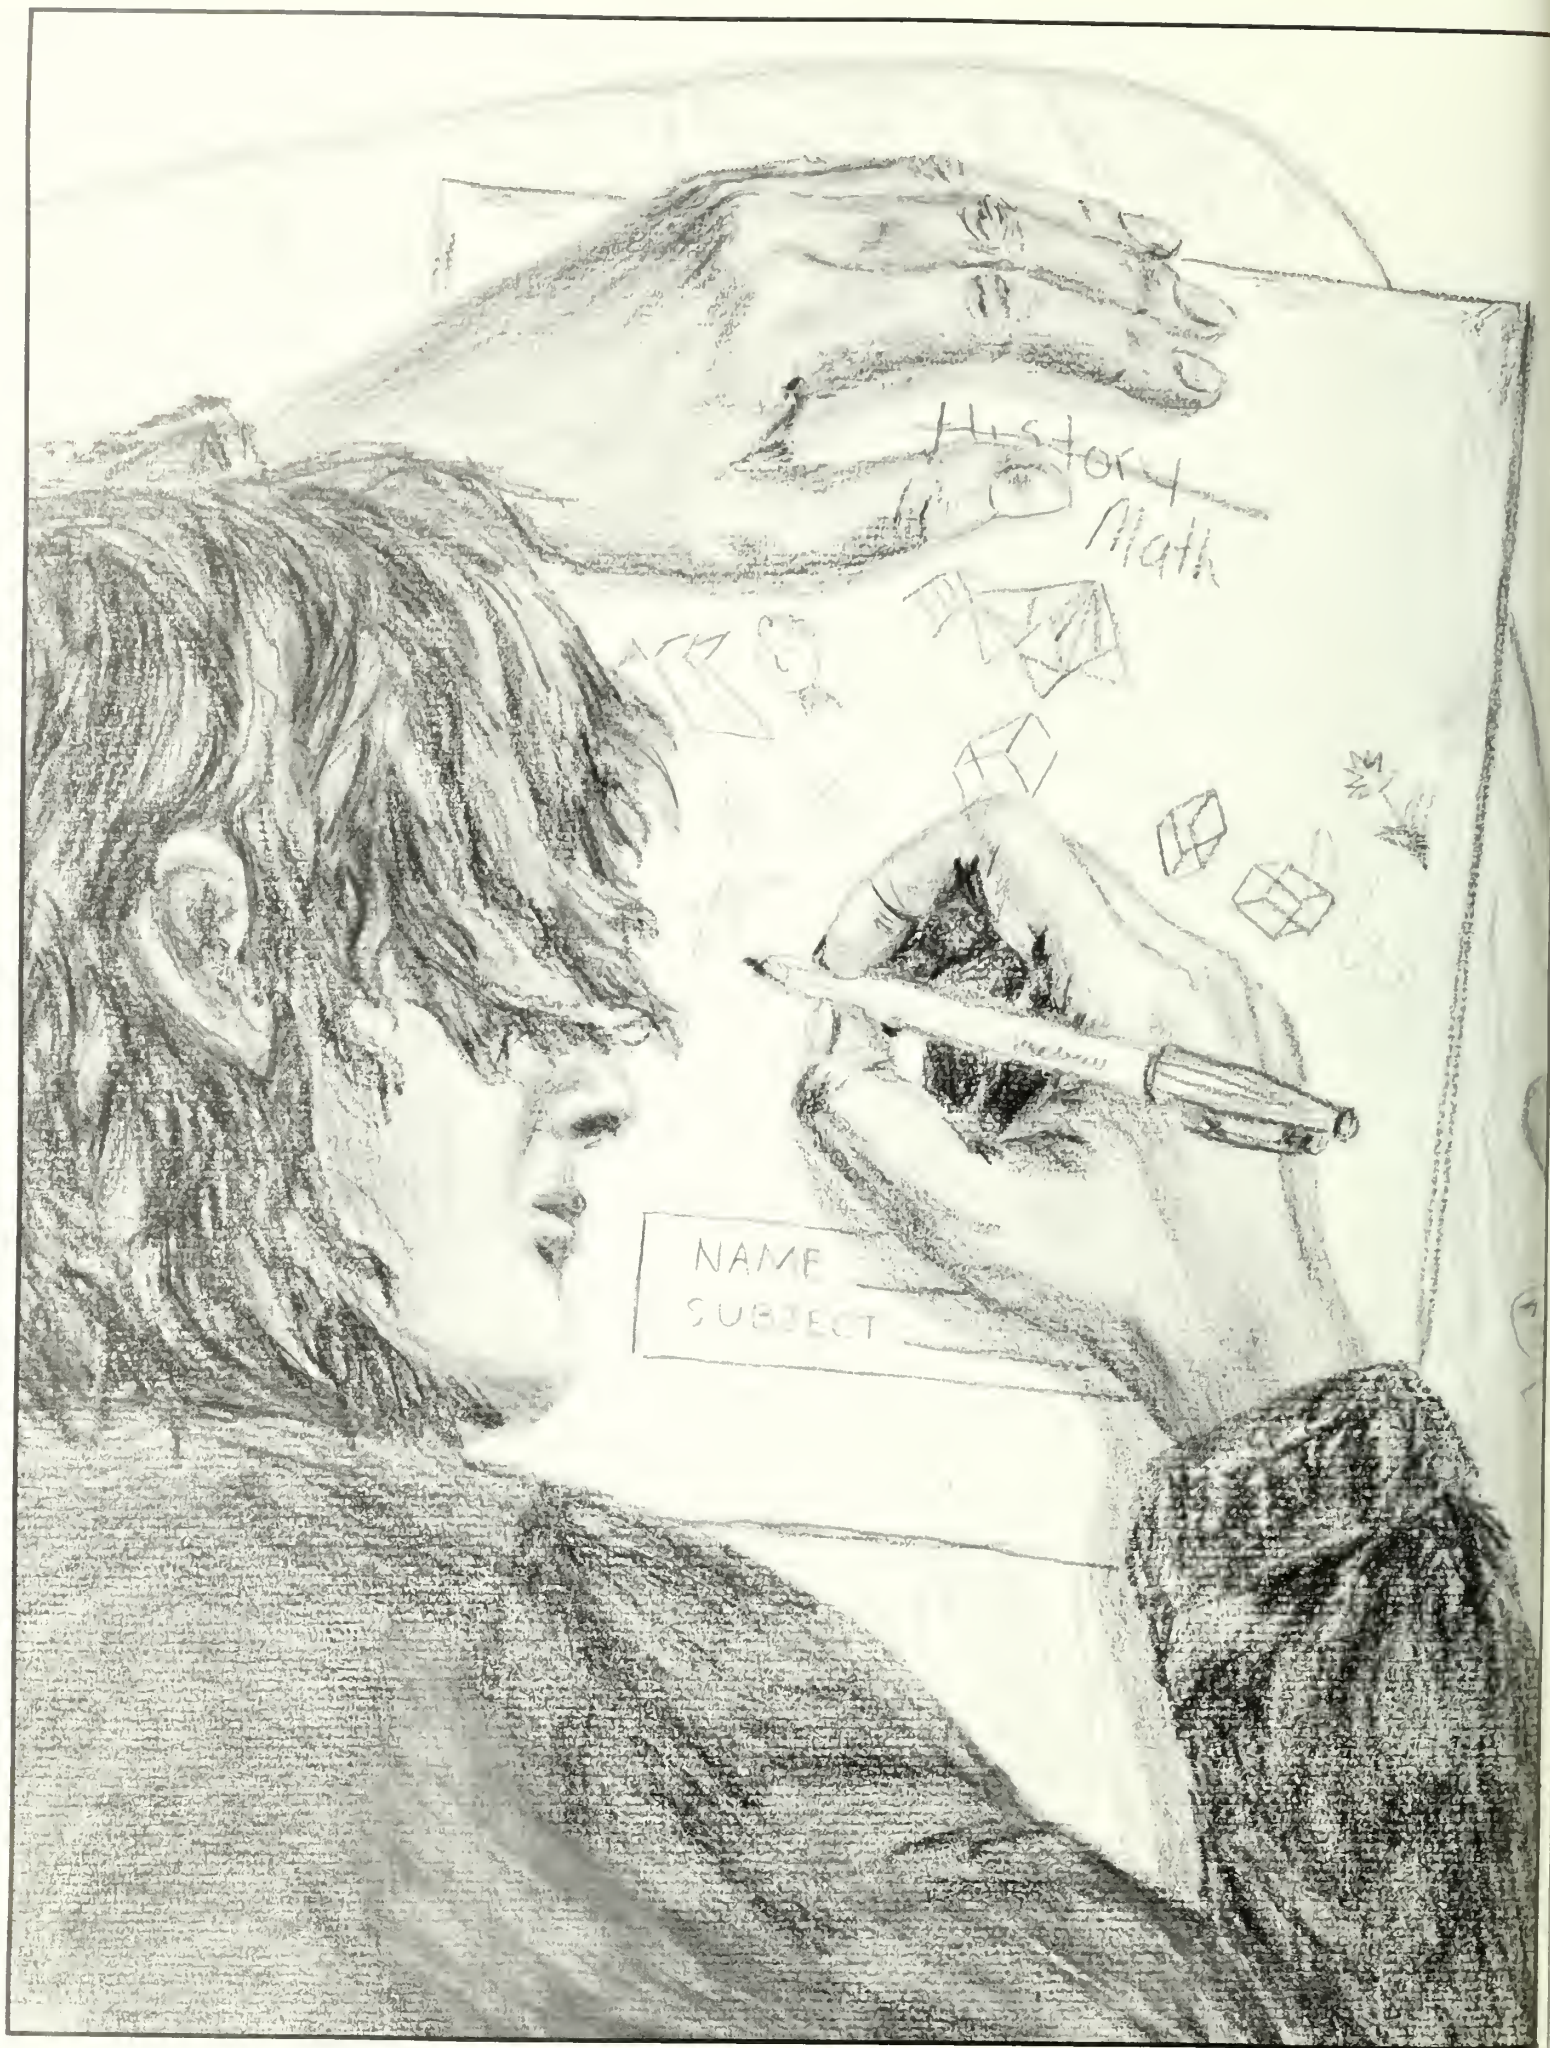

John O'Malley

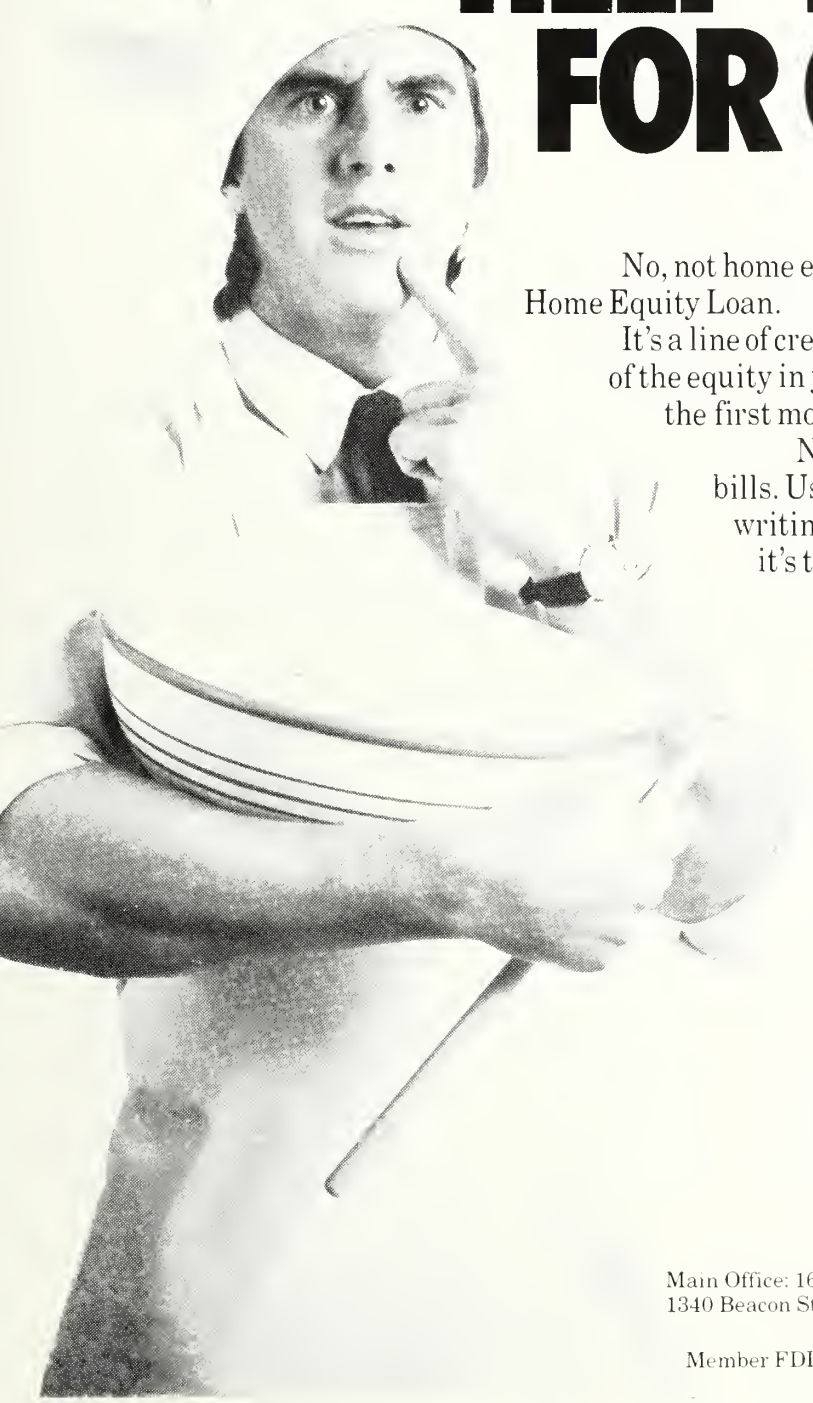

Daniel Curry

The 1988-89 school year witnessed the deaths of two Brookline High School custodians, Daniel Curry and John O'Malley. Mr. Curry worked during the school day, and Mr. O'Malley worked at night.

Each man is survived by a wife and children, all of whom graduated from B.H.S. We would like to thank both the Curry and O'Malley families for their enduring contributions to the Brookline High School community.

HOW A COURSE IN HOME EC CAN HELP YOU PAY FOR COLLEGE.

No, not home economics. Brookline Savings Bank's Home Equity Loan.

It's a line of credit that lets you borrow as much as 80% of the equity in your owner-occupied house or condo, less the first mortgage — up to $100,000

Now it's easy to meet those big college bills. Using your line of credit is as simple as writing a check. And, under the new tax bill, it's tax deductible.

Because a Home Equity Loan is secured by the equity in your home, the rate is only 1 1/2 points above the prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal. And there are no fees!*

Take a quick course in home equity at any Brookline Savings branch today. Our customer service reps have all the facts. And all qualified homeowners are sure to pass.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1989

THANKS

FOR THE MEMORIES

To my family, thanks for putting up with me for all of those years. I know that I can be crabby and irritable at times, and for this I apologize; I will try to do better — you deserve a better son. Thanks for all that you've done for me, I hope that I will make you proud.

To my friends, I'm sorry that I can't mention all of you, but to those with whom I've become especially close, this is for you.

Vincent, thanks for your scholarly advice — I'll always remember it. Now please . . . get some rest, and an indestructible (and very obnoxious) alarm clock.

Helen, you always made me laugh, even when I didn't think I could. Thanks for showing me that one can't be truly alive without being happy. I'll always be a shoulder for you to cry on.

Tom, thanks for being a pal. Without you, how could I do my psychology homework?

Dave, thanks for rekindling the competitor in me. Until we can run the table, let the dice roll where they may.

To the gang in Chinese class, this Chung Yazi's for you.

To the Legal Ed. crew, . . . see you in court!

And to Beth, thanks for the memories, I'll never forget you. "Hold on to the nights."

1989

We the class of '89.

We represent the future not only for our country, but also for our world; our actions today influence the events of tomorrow. The world we stand to inherit is a wonderful one, but not a perfect one. It has its problems.

Drugs. Famine. Acid rain. Pollution. The greenhouse effect. The threat of nuclear war.

These problems that face our world are real, and they must be dealt with; the process of handing down problems from generation to generation has to stop. There is no justice in giving the children the problems that adults aren't willing to confront themselves. The problems of today are the ones we must face tomorrow.

Overcoming these problems will be a monumental task, but humanity is known for its incredible ability for resilience. If the effort and the dedication exists, then there is nothing that cannot be accomplished.

Some individuals might think that one person can't make a difference in the world. To them I remind of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. He not only led the battle for equality, but he also (and perhaps more importantly) proved that one person can influence the world.

Dr. King is a special hero to me, not only for what he did, but also because of why he did it. He saw something wrong, and he took a stand. He took action because he knew that an injustice had to be corrected. In a world where apathy is often the easiest way to deal with a problem, Dr. King chose the more difficult, and sometimes more dangerous, road of caring and compassion.

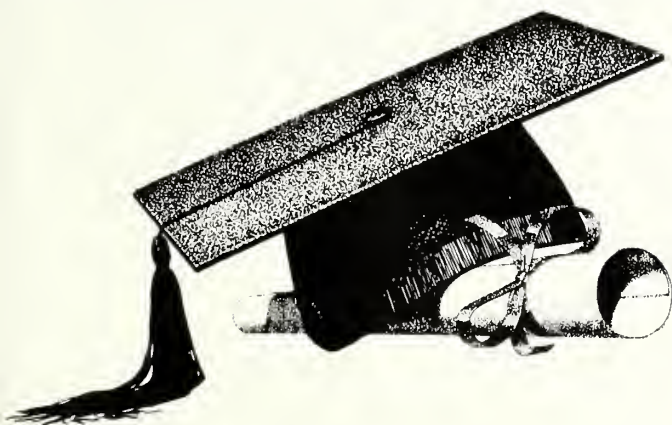

His compassion and selfless deeds have enabled countless others to benefit.

We face a challenge in our future years, though it is great, I've seen what people are able to do if they care enough to act upon their beliefs, and I know that we can win. The future is before us, and we have the ability to shape it.

I wait with anticipation for the future and all that it holds; I look forward to meeting the challenges and overcoming the obstacles. To my friends, and the class of 1989, no goodbyes, just good memories. Best wishes, and good luck.

Destiny awaits

"... the child must grow. It must emerge from mother's womb, from mother's breast; it must eventually become a completely separate human ... The mother must not only tolerate, she must wish and support the child's separation. It is only at this stage that motherly love becomes such a difficult task, that it requires unselfishness, the ability to give everything and want nothing but the happiness of the loved one."

Erich Fromm

I wholeheartedly applaud your success and growth.

Dear Toby and The Class of 1989

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with wornout tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run—
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

RUDYARD KIPLING

Congratulations, The Ostrander family

The Devotion School P.T.O. congratulates the Class of 1989, and wishes each of you fulfillment and happiness in the years to come.

TO JENNIFER . . .

The best thing you can do is believe in yourself. Don't be afraid to try. Don't be afraid to fail. Just try again.

My love and support and encouragement go with you wherever you go . . . As this marks an ending it opens the door to a wonderful and exciting new beginning!

You are a wonderful person. My daughter! (I say those words with such pride.)

LOVE, MOM.

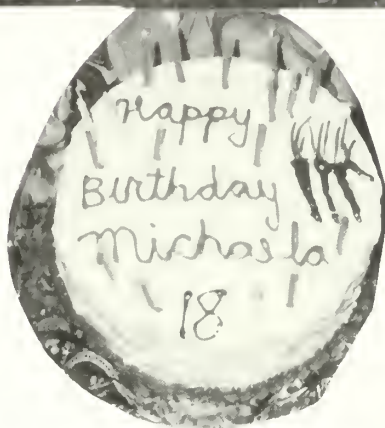

The Lawrence school P.T.O. wishes to congratulate the CLASS OF '89!

We hope that the high level of achievement that you have established continues in your future.

Dear Michaela,

True Colors are beautiful like a rainbow so don't be afraid to let them show!

With your forever smile, your abundant love for people and your undaunted spirit, you will truly make a difference in this needy world. We're so proud of the wonderful person you've become. Reach for it and it will be yours.

Lovingly composed by your sister, April, who speaks for all of us--Mom, Don,

Best of luck
To the Class of '89

From BAKER SCHOOL

SARAH — After an unfulfilling career as a Las Vegas showgirl, Sarah meets the perfect men, and settles down on a peanut farm in Vermont.

JEN A. — Jen opens Tofu Burger/Poetry Reading take-out stand on a California beach. With the money she earns she feeds at the state's homeless and buys herself a pair of shoes without holes.

GILI — After coming to the conclusion that everyone is the nicest person she's ever met, Gili meets her calendar man only to find out that he's both an asthmatic and a Stove Top Stuffing/Brand X macaroni and cheese worshipper. Tragedy strikes though, when they discover that he's allergic to her blanky.

JEN M. — Jen becomes the governor of New York after talking Mario Cuomo to death. She surprises her public by delivering her state of the state address in song and dance. She then passes a law stating that there is just "NO NEED" to know how to drive to get a license.

DEBBIE — After doing Dallas, she creates an "Old Judea" chapter and appoints herself world programmer. Now Deb trains her anorexic cats to harmonize with her.

INGRID — With her new TV talk show, Ingrid blows Johnny Carson . . . out of the ratings. After finally deciding on Inkvid Goldenshtein as her stage name, she is forced to take a leave of absence to get her braces back on.

VLADA — After sabotaging the family business, "Vlada Kitchens" becomes "Vlada Art Supplies". She runs a successful business and an unsuccessful Audi. Sorry this doesn't make much sense, Vlada wrote it after failing the TOEFL.
